I have read over the finishing instructions and agree to have The Enriched Stitch send out my work for finishing services. Finishing imperfections may be a result of the piece not having been worked on a scroll or a frame. Signature: _____

Due to the high volume our finishers receive and the individual attention they provide to each piece, we cannot guarantee any finishing by a specified date or the exact duplication of another finished piece. Beads and other embellishments applied to a canvas are not the responsibility of The Enriched Stitch.
